The screenshot shows the Taylor & Francis Group website. The main navigation bar includes links for About Us, Subjects, Browse, Products, Request a trial, Librarian Resources, and What's New!. The 'Subjects' dropdown is open, showing categories like Mathematics & Statistics, Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing & Allied Health, and Health. A large banner in the center promotes MEDICINEnetBASE with text: 'of award-winning digital resources and a fully comprehensive platform, covering all major subject areas and sub-disciplines.' It also highlights '125,000+ eBooks' and '2 Million+ Chapters'. A red box highlights the 'Subjects' dropdown menu.
